

Giants Rally and Beat Out the Dodgers—Yankees Near Victory Again by Two-Py Victory

Frisch's Double Big Factor In "Lucky Seventh" Jubilee

Southpaw Mitchell Soundly Thrashed for Four Runs After Holding McGraw's Team in Check for Six Innings; Toney Is Winner by 4 to 3

By Charles A. Taylor

Fine pitching by Fred Toney, and some timely hitting by Frank Fordham Frisch, enabled the Giants to defeat the champion Dodgers yesterday afternoon at the Polo Grounds by a score of 4 to 3. This victory gave the McGraw men an even break on the series of four games, and was most welcome inasmuch as the leading Pirates once again trampled upon the Chicago Cubs.

The fact that "Frisch" Meusel finally got his old bat swinging at a hit-making angle is worthy of special comment. There was considerable question as to Meusel's first hit, the general opinion being that Ivan Olson should have been charged with an error instead. But there was no doubt at all about the two other blows which Frisch made.

One home run was added to the long list of circuit crashes for the season, by Frisch being the lucky individual. Frisch's hit, which carried him to the lower right field stand. The only other extra-base smacks of the afternoon were delivered by Frankie Frisch and Duane Barnhart, each of whom made a double.

Continues Southpaw Attack

Following his custom, Uncle Wilbert Robinson launched another southpaw at the Giants, in the person of Clarence Mitchell, and up until the seventh inning it looked very much like another defeat for the Polo Grounders.

But Fordham Frisch and a couple of errors gave the Giants an opening which they seized to battle through to victory.

The Dodgers tallied the first run of the game in the third inning. Pete Kilduff singled to left and Miller sacrificed, Kelly to Rawlings, the latter covering first. Mitchell hit a hot grounder which went through Barnhart, and Kilduff scored. Toney then tightened up and Olson popped to Rawlings. Frisch tossed out Johnston. In the fourth Frisch inserted his feeble home run for another flatbush run.

Practically all the action of the game was crowded into the seventh inning, which Meusel opened for the Giants with a single to left. Rawlings grounded sharply to Kilduff, who tossed to Olson for a force-out, but Ivan dropped the ball. Johnston made a fine catch of Snyder's low-sailing liner, and doubled Meusel off second. Rawlings sticking to first.

Toney surprised the assembled populace by hitting safely to right and Rawlings sped to third. When Griffith fumbled the drive Big Fred set sail for second and Olson popped to Rawlings.

Mitchell Forces in Run

Burns drew a pass, and the bases were filled. Bancroft was hit in the leg by one of Mitchell's side-arm shots and limped to first, while Rawlings walked. It was only a wonderful stop on the part of Frisch which prevented Frisch from making at least a triple out of his wicked smash.

Myers singled to right, advancing to third. Schmidt hit to left, right center, seeking Griffith and putting Myers on third. Slim Salbee began to warm up furiously, but Kilduff hit him by rolling to Toney for the final out.

Brooklyn Lead in Series

The season series between the Giants and Dodgers now stands 9 to 6 in favor of the Flatbushers. The two teams will meet at the Polo Grounds next Sunday for one game, this being an open date.

Poor base running by Bancroft in the last inning caused a grunt or two in the crowded stand. Dave reached first on a short single to center. Frisch followed with another short single to left. Bancroft foolishly tried to reach third. Myers threw Dave out by a mile or so.

Toney's only base on balls came in the ninth inning and led to a run. In five of the nine innings Fred retired the side in order.

Watson Is Twice Victor for Braves In Double-Header

Boston Pitcher Blanks Phillies With Two Hits After Winning First Game

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Watson pitched a double header for the Braves today against the Phillies and won both games, the first 4 to 3 and the second 8 to 0. He allowed but two hits in the second game, these being the only occasions when a visitor reached first base.

The batting of Powell and the sensational playing of Ford were features. The scores:

Record Crowd Sees Athletics Troughed Twice

Mays and Collins Pitch for Huguen in Series Final; 35,000 Witness Games

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 13.—The Athletics, playing before the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a ball game in Philadelphia, crushed the Athletics in two games today. Hitting the ball with all their vigor, the Huguenots won the first game by a score of 7 to 2, and the second by 13 to 7. The Athletics are now just a point behind the Indians as they depart on their exhibition jaunt through Columbus, Louisville and Indianapolis. They will open their final Western trip in Chicago on Wednesday.

More than 35,000 fans witnessed the contest. Almost an equal number lined around the gates trying to get in. Many of the Athletics looked for a left field game, and some of them succeeded before the nightsticks of the police could quell their enthusiasm.

After the game the fans in the grandstand hurled hundreds of cushions at those on the field, and the victims picked up the cushions and threw them right back. Half a dozen arrests were made.

Harris Driven From Mound

Carl Mays and Rip Collins pitched for the Athletics. Collins and Slim Harris performed for the home club. Rommel went the route, but Harris was out of the game in three innings. With Eddie Rommel in the box in the first game the Athletics looked for some spirited opposition. However, in the third inning, they climbed on board the young right hander and knocked him around the lot for four runs. It started with a double by Willie Schmitt and continued while Ward, Miller, Peck and Baker were bunting their crashing wallows.

A wild throw by Dykes was about the only break in the perfect feeling of the inning. The guns of the Athletics were silent in the next frame, but in the sixth Baker was safe on an error by Dykes, and Meusel slammed the ball into the left field fence.

The seventh and final run of the Athletics in this battle came in the seventh inning. Miller crashed to left for a base hit, and after wallowing to right for a single and Miller tallied.

The Athletics roused themselves into a wee bit of frenzy in the fifth inning. Johnnie Mercer, taking a walk, hit Welch in center field, unloaded a triple to the center field fence, and crossed the plate on Dugan's well-timed Peck. In the ninth inning Clarence Walker came through with his eighteenth homer of the season.

Yanks Get Five Runs

Slim Harris, a proud proprietor of nine straight victories earlier in the season, wilted in the face of the withering bombardment he received in the second game. Ed Miller, who had a contest with a grounder to McCann, who threw wildly to first and Miller arrived safely. Peck singled, but Miller dived for the ball and threw it to Dugan. Babe was passed, Baker was out, but Meusel, Pipp and Ward singled in succession with a result that five runs were credited to the Athletics.

Harris and Miller, who had a contest in the third inning, Ruth was the first man up in this frame, and he belted a fly to short right. Baker arched a single to the left field fence, and Meusel and Ruth went to third. Harris tried Meusel on a slow ball, and it met the same fate that Rommel's similar offering had met. Long Bob took the left field stands scoring Ruth and Baker. Pipp then waited and walked. Ward doubled and Schang walked, ending the rout of Harris. Peck fanned and the inning was over.

While Rip Collins started boldly, he was not quite so bold at the ending. He was hit here and there and finally retired in the ninth. The Athletics probably had no chance to win, but Huggins was taking no chances. Bob Schawkey pitched the final out in the ninth inning.
